1. The Revolutionary Military Council has decided to strengthen the political convictions of its military cadres by holding political indoctrination classes for them. The first class will be held in Peiping under HSIAO Hua, deputy director of the Revolutionary Military Council's political department. He will be assisted by his deputies, AI Szu-ch'i (艾思奇) and FENG Wen-pin (冯文彬).
2. The subjects of study include Marx-Leninism, MAO Tse-tung's Doctrines, MAO Tse-tung's Pragmatism, and the Regulations for the Suppression of Counter-revolution.
3. Three thousand regimental and battalion grade cadres will comprise the first class, which is scheduled to begin on 1 June and will last for three months.
